

WEDNESDAY UPDATE: PLEASE BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR APRIL 1 HOAXES. IF IT SOUNDS TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE, TAKE A BREATH AND THINK IT THROUGH. (with gratitude to Rev. Jackson)

Five American GIs killed in Iraq in a bomb and an attack represent one of the grimmest days there in months. There is also footage of a mutilated body being dragged down a road which WE WILL NOT AIR UNTIL IT HAS BEEN CLEARED.

March is the anniversary of the Kosovo conflict. What lessons can we learn from the UN handling of that troubled region as we look at its potential effect on Iraq.

The INTL Court of Justice ruling against the US is something that many Americans might find offensive. We'll take a look at just what this court is, and what gives it the right to tell US courts what to do with death row prisoners.

We'll do another day of lives on the missing Wisconsin woman who's missing in suspicious circumstances.

Day 10 of the Tyco trial deliberations. What does the jury think the gold shower rings were for?

And, as if the country wasn't in enough trouble, folks in California are poaching bees so they can pollinate. No stinging or buzz puns, please.
