

August 23, 2007

Sponsored By

Should we bomb Iran? Vote Now!

Discover Coffee Grown World Wide with the Boca Java.com 30-Day Adventure.

On Today's Program

General Richard Myers

The former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff joined today's program to talk about Iraq, how the surge is going, the true nature of the enemy we are facing, and have the handcuffs on our troops been taken off? Read the transcript. (Insiders listen here).

Vick Backers Speak

People defending Michael Vick are starting to come out of the woodwork. Stephon Marbury is one. In this video clip he explains how he doesn't see a difference between this and people who hunt deer. Marbury, ever the capitalist, was promoting a new shoe he has out while defending dog murderer Michael Vick. Smart.

Another star athlete wrote a piece of 'literature' (read: crap) that explains Vick shouldn't be punished because 'he could lose millions in endorsement money'. Deion 'Prime Time' Sanders brings the plight of poor Michael Vick front and center. 'Nike has already suspended the release of his new shoe.' Really? What's he supposed to wear at his next dog hanging? 'He could lose millions he was supposed to get from the Atlanta Falcons, if the club decides to cut him.' Gasp! Who knew what a raw deal Vick was getting? Can the plight of Michael Vick get any worse, Deion? 'Or his reputation might wind up so stained that he's never forgiven in the court of public opinion. That would be too bad for the 27-year-old superstar.' Well gosh darn it, the tears of sadness for Michael Vick are now starting to flow because of your emotional plea, Mr. Deion 'Prime Time' Sanders. I'm not a court of public opinion expert, but I am a thinker. And I think maybe, just maybe, if Michael Vick could have done something other than brutally execute dogs in his spare time, his reputation might still be in tact. Read the transcript. (Insiders listen here).

Read 'Prime Time's' literary prose here.

Arugula Moment

Barack Obama was in Iowa talking to some farmers and tried on some of his 'relating to farm people' material. "Anybody gone into Whole Foods lately and see what they charge for arugula?" the Senator said. "I mean, they're charging a lot of money for this stuff." It would have been a total home run for the Senator if it weren't for the fact that there are no Whole Foods stores in Iowa and arugula is not even grown in the state. Glenn talks about why attempting to play the 'I can relate to you' card is never a good idea for politicians on the campaign trail, and what they should do instead. Read the transcript. (Insiders listen here).

TV Tonight

Shirtless dictators, Glenn talking sports, and Bob Saget. This is going to be a TV show you don't want to miss. It's tonight at 7pm eastern, only on Headline News.

See ya tomorrow, you sick freak!

The Stu Show

THE STU BURGUIERE PROGRAM
FRIDAYS NOON EST.      INSIDERS ONLY

Every Friday, executive producer Stu Burguiere will host an hour long after-show-show broadcast only for the Insiders. Not an Insider? Sign up today.

If you missed it you can listen here to the most recent edition of the Stu Show.

Should we bomb Iran? We want to know what you really think. Joe Lieberman needs your vote in this urgent poll. Go Here Now!

Log on to BocaJava.com and explore coffee grown world-wide with the 30 Day Adventure. Receive 30 bags of our most popular blends, so you can enjoy great-tasting coffee every day.

You lock your keys in the car, get lost or break down on the side of the road. But you don't worry. Because you're smart - you get the OnStar treatment.

Glenn Beck Program | 1270 Avenue of the Americas | New York, NY 10020

www.glennbeck.com

Unsubscribe or update your email address.

