Dear Newsmax Reader,

I'll cut straight to the chase.

You are about to be directly hit with a full assault from the IRS.

And you should heed this warning and prepare yourself accordingly.

To pay down our massive federal deficit, President Obama is going to come calling for what he believes is your portion of our $13.2 trillion tab.

In fact, as we stand now in his eyes, you are responsible for more than $119,000 (that's exactly how much each citizen owes, according to my sources).

So you are going to be slapped with new Medicare taxes, cap and trade, and a value-added tax.

And President Obama is just getting started.

Once he intentionally lets the Bush tax cuts expire, tens of millions of Americans will feel a direct impact to their retirement savings.

And that's just on the federal level.

Individual states also want an even bigger piece of your income. In fact, 33 states have already raised taxes while cutting services. And soon the rest will follow.

You need sound advice in these days of extortion from over-taxation.

That You Do During the Coming Tax Hike to Profit!

As you may recall, on June 17, Newsmax hosted an Economic Crisis Summit. An esteemed panel led by Fox News' Bill O'Reilly and Dick Morris, along with legendary investor Jim Rogers, gathered to discuss the deficit, inflation, and higher taxes.

Hundreds of thousands of concerned Americans tuned in to find actionable solutions they could take to prepare themselves and their wealth.

The feedback was incredible. We were flooded with thousands of e-mails from ordinary Americans.

And although they thanked us for organizing this powerful event, we realize that many still needed more answers for the upcoming tax hikes.

So we are going to continue this important discussion.

This Economic Crisis Summit Follow-Up Briefing reveals never-before seen footage of Bill O'Reilly explaining what he is doing right now to prepare.

Joining him in the discussion will be Newsmax Financial Brain Trust member and acclaimed accountant Bill Spetrino.

Bill has made millions for himself and his clients as an investor. His keen understanding of tax loopholes has allowed him and those who follow him to keep more of the money that is rightfully theirs.

Together, they will give you a clear picture of what to expect from these tax hikes . . . ultra-safe, yet profitable, investing tips and how you can actually make a great deal of tax-free income each and every week.

You can watch this Internet broadcast next week (actual date to be determined). You will need to RSVP to see this airing.
